ADDITIONAL MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Workshop Key Holders

Members who pay a one-off key deposit of $25 (refundable after twelve months on return of the key).

Before becoming a key holder, the member must demonstrate an understanding of workshop procedures as outlined in Information for New Members. The member must have attended a combination of classes, workshops and social activities over a minimum of three months, and be nominated by two committee members or class teachers who are members.

To be a workshop key holder is a privilege, not a right.

In exceptional circumstances the Committee can withdraw this privilege.

Exhibition (Gallery) Group Members - Consideration by invitation or request

Social &/or Workshop Members involved in running, operating & selling their work through CCPS Gallery.

A one-off $50 key deposit is required (refundable after twelve months on return of the key).

Exhibition Group members are entitled to use the workshop on their rostered gallery duty days only.

Use of the workshop on other days, e.g. firing kilns, using wheels, slab roller etc., requires a Workshop Membership (an additional $55 fee).

For any queries concerning membership, please contact the Membership Officer at the Central Coast Potters' Society, on 02 4324 5343.
