Discover the joy of Figurative Clay sculpture.

This term the theme will be creating small figures:-humans, animals or a combination of both. Work can be free standing or attached to another clay form as in the work in the picture. There will opportunity to explore and practice details including hands and feet. There will be a demonstration in week 1 which will show techniques in using the given clay.

Clay used is Keanes Raku Paper Clay, suitable for displaying your pottery masterpieces outdoors.

Rachel creates work with the garden in mind and has had particular interest in human form. She has also explored small animals and is currently doing a study of horses. Rachel's work has been described as earthy and tactile creating works depicting emotion, environment and the natural world.
